

QuickKits: Packing your products, providing you savings

Reduce the time spent sorting, organizing and receiving material.

When material is delivered to your jobsite, how often are you spending time sorting through pallets and boxes hunting for what you need to install?

Wouldn't it be easier if your material was delivered, organized and labeled for ease of install?

Gexpro would like to partner with you to develop a custom kitting solution specific to your requirements. Tell us what you need and we will go to work for you.
